DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 18 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 18 recites the limitation "the dispensing axis" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1, 3-6, 8-10, 14, 15, 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Gattone (3,310,830).

Gattone discloses an applicator comprising: a propellant container 37; a nozzle 40; an actuator 30; a housing 11, 12.

The recitation "nail polish" has been considered a descriptive phrase defining the intended use of the device and has been given no patentable weight. The device of Gattone is not prohibited from being used as a nail polish applicator.

5. Claims 1-4, 6, 7, 11, 12, 13, 15, 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Gebauer (2,171,501).

Gebauer discloses an applicator comprising: a propellant container 10; a nozzle 19; an actuator 18; a housing 12, a cap 22

The recitation "nail polish" has been considered a descriptive phrase defining the intended use of the device and has been given no patentable weight. The device of Gebauer is not prohibited from being used as a nail polish applicator.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 16 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gattone (3,310,830).

Regarding claim 16, Gattone discloses the limitations of the claimed invention with the exception of the diameter of the container proximate the actuator. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have limited the container outer diameter proximate the actuator to not greater than 1.0 inch, since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233.

Regarding claim 17, Gattone discloses the limitations of the claimed invention with the exception of the distance of the actuator from the outlet. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide limited the actuator from the outlet to not greater than 1.5 inches in a direction along the dispensing axis, since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233.
